

Independence Day Celebrations in your Community

The Fourth of July is coming up and I would like to encourage everyone to attend the various events being held throughout my district. Here is a small list of local community events, parades and other activities.

- The 50th annual Folsom Pro Rodeo is being held on July 2nd, 3rd, 4th at the Dan Russell Arena in Folsom City Park. The event starts at 6:00PM and will consist of bull riding and roping events finishing up with a fantastic fireworks display. For more information visit their website at www.folsomprorodeo.com
- The 2010 Carmichael Elks Fourth of July Parade begins at 11:00AM. The route starts at Fair Oaks and Marconi and ends at the Carmichael Elks Lodge on Cypress Avenue. In addition to the parade the Carmichael Park and Recreation District will be holding Carmichael's Gala Fireworks Show that begins at 6:00PM at the La Sierra Community Center. For more information visit their website at www.carmichaelpark.com
- The North Highlands Recreation and Parks District has their Fourth of July event on July 3rd from 11:30AM to 2:30PM at the Highland Community Pool. The cost is $4 and includes a barbecue lunch. For more information visit their website at www.nhrpd.org
- The Roseville Fourth of July Parade begins at 10:00AM with the route starting on the Vernon/Douglas/Riverside intersection and ending on Park Drive. A free fireworks show will be held at the Placer County Fairgrounds around 9:30PM. For more information visit their website at www.roseville.ca.us
- The 9th Annual Arden Arcade Fourth of July Parade begins at 10:30AM. The route starts at Fulton and ends at Howe Park. For more information visit the Fulton Avenue Association website at <http://fultonavenue.com>

I hope that everyone has a safe and fun Fourth of July!
